Importantly, 'Return of the Daleks' serves as an entry point for anyone who has not listened to Big Finish's epic Dalek Empire, and plenty of time is given to introduce both Susan Mendez, who acts as the Daleks' Angel of Mercy to keep morale high across the realms of Dalek subjugation, and Karlendorf, a one-time Knight of Velyshaa who reminds Susan of her true puppet status while also ...

Return of the Daleks | Doctor Who Reviews

For those jumping into this one as a 7th Doctor story, it isn't McCoy's best. The story has three elements Nicholas Briggs uses all too often in the Dalek Empire series: an unnecessary framing narrative, a significant shift in time with too little time for the listener to feel comfortable with the shift, and non-linear elements that don't make sense when they are initially presented.
